See Andover-Lawrence Phone Service Tripled With Toll Eliminated

Telephone traffic between Andover and Lawrence is expected to triple when the new extended area service eliminating the 10-cent toll charge goes into effect next year.

Preparations for the change are now being made as the result of 76.7 per cent of all Andover subscribers voting in favor of the proposed plan.

The company will file a copy of the plan with the state department of public utilities 30 days prior to the effective date of the change and meanwhile will make the necessary engineering studies to determine what increases in facilities will have to be made in order to comply with the wishes of its local subscribers.

The anticipated increase in phone traffic—three times the present amount officials estimate—will require more equipment and may make it necessary to install another position in the local office.

The poll of Andover subscribers was started last month in compliance with many requests from customers. So far 92.3 per cent of the subscribers have responded and the vote shows that 76.7 per cent of all subscribers are in favor of the change.

Besides eliminating the toll charges on all calls between the two communities the extended area service will permit Andover customers to call nearly eight times as many telephones as they can call now at local rates. Andover phones will also continue to have the Andover designation of numbers.

The new plan will make the present Lawrence rates effective in Andover but Lawrence rates will not be changed.

Probe Hold Up in West Andover

Police are investigating a hold up in West Andover where Mrs. Robert Smith was terrorized by a tall young man with a gun who robbed her of $60 at her home, 87 River rd., early Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Smith reported that as she went from her kitchen to the garage to get some nuts she was confronted by the man and at the point of a gun was forced to go back into the house and produce her hand bag which contained $60 received from a Christmas club. The money was intended to buy gifts.

The man whom she described as tall and slim, wearing dark clothing, took the bills and threw the bag back on the bed. He departed on foot.

Police were notified and searched the district but found no trace of the bandit.

Seal Sale Better Than Last Year

During the first two weeks of the 44th annual Christmas seal sale residents of Andover contributed $1,675.00 to the support of the tuberculosis control program of the Essex County Health association in Beverly, Mrs. Arita T. Nichols, chairman of the Andover Christmas seal committee announced today.

This amount Mrs. Nichols said, represents an increase of $62.50 as compared with the sum given during the same period last year.

"I wish to thank those who have already sent in their contributions for their encouraging promptness," said Mrs. Nichols. "However, it is our hope that more Andover people will feel they can accept the two sheets of seals mailed to them in order that Andover may do its fair share toward raising the $65,000 quota of the Essex County Health association."

The association serves 30 cities and towns in the county. Community X-ray surveys have been organized by its staff members in Amesbury, Danvers, Groveland, Haverhill, Marblehead, Merrimac, Methuen, Middleton, Nahant, Rockport, Rowley and Swampscott. Surveys in Beverly, Gloucester, Peabody, and Saugus are scheduled to take place in 1951.

Freight Delays Traffic In Vale

A traffic tie-up occurred at the Ballardvale railroad crossing last Thursday night when the Boston to Portland freight train was obliged to halt there due to a hot box in one of the cars.

The train left Boston at 7.35 p. m., and arrived at Ballardvale about 8.30 p. m. There was a delay of over two hours while the car with the hot box was cut out and set off on a siding.

Meanwhile the crossing was blocked and motorists had to travel all the way to Central street, Andover, to get from one side of the town to the other.

Forming Auxiliary Fire Department

An auxiliary fire fighting force will be organized under Fire Chief C. Edward Buchan to augment the regular department in the event of emergency.

This auxiliary force will be part of the civil defense set-up for the town. Registrations are now being taken at the central fire station and training will start after the first of the year.

Men who were in the auxiliary fire department during the past war and others interested in this work are urged to join.

Water Pipe Breaks On Shawsheen Rd.

Water pressure was low in a section of West Andover for a few hours Wednesday morning while employees of the board of public works were repairing a break in a 12-inch main on Shawsheen road.

The water did not break through the roadway but found its way into a culvert into which it was gushing for some hours before being discovered. The section containing the broken pipe was shut off while repairs were being made.

Cutting capers and indulging in the usual high jinks that attend the annual event, students of the senior class at Pynchard donned all kinds of costumes for the stunt night held last Friday evening at the Memorial bym. Some of the participants paused for a moment to smile at our photographer. Here they are: Standing, left to right, June Whitworth, Wilfred Svenson, Carol Wright, Clifford Lawrence, May Morrissey, Richard Pinckley; seated on table, Joan Barry and Therese Naylor; kneeling in front, Joan Corey, Bettianne Locke, Sylvia Shtrumpfman and Fran Ratyna. Red Cross Aids Serve Hospitals

For 30 years the Red Cross has pioneered in training volunteers for service in hospitals. The assistance that such volunteers give in the 79% of American hospitals that are run by the government or on a non-profit basis is a definite community service, one which Andover helps to provide through its volunteer service committees. Three of these committees have regular assignments at Bedford Veteran's hospital, according to Mrs. David M. Thompson, in charge of the volunteers, while others serve as special needs arise.

Motor corps transports the workers and takes patients out for pleasure rides. One veteran, who requested a trip to see the General Electric plant in Lynn where he had formerly been employed, had not been away from the hospital since 1932. Canteen takes its turn with other Red Cross chapters serving this hospital in providing refreshments for parties for the patients. Mrs. Thompson has also enlisted a number of ladies to supply birthday cakes occasionally.

The Gray Ladies spend a day each week at the hospital, planning and providing entertainment for these men, many of whom are far from their own families. Craft instruction, decorations for special occasions, reading aloud are among the many services given.

Recently Mrs. Herbert F. Allison, chairman, Mrs. P. John Connors, and Mrs. Leon A. Field were awarded three-year certificates and Mrs. Zella Berton, Mrs. George F. Symonds received one-year awards for service. The presentation was made at a party given by the patients to the volunteers working on their behalf.

Hospital Aids Plan Christmas Cheer

All Andover members are cordially urged to attend and are requested to bring a 10-cent gift for some other guest. Refreshments will be served after the Christmas tree festivities.

The music committee is happy to present to local people an Andover resident, Eunice Alberts, as alto soloist. Hundreds of people are looking forward to hearing the gorgeous voice which this young lady possesses.

She is in great demand this season and the local choir is most fortunate in being able to obtain her for Sunday night. One of the highlights of her musical career was the occasion last summer when she appeared with Serge Koussevitsky and the Boston Symphony orchestra at Tanglewood in Bach's B Minor mass.

Sunday night's supporting soloists are of excellent quality and reputation. Doris Karamourtopoulis of Lawrence, soprano, a young lady of great promise and with a truly lovely voice, and Donald Sullivan, tenor, a singer of wide experience who has appeared in Andover before.

The chorus has been putting much time in this great work and an excellent performance is anticipated. Raymond Wilkinson will be at the organ, Ellen Stahle is the pianist, and the production will be directed by J. Everett Collins.

YOUR NEW SOCIAL SECURITY

By H. L. LEIGHTON
Manager Lawrence Office

Perhaps in the past you have said, or have heard someone say: "John H. was a corporation official with an upper-brackets salary. Now he's retired and getting social security benefit payments monthly. I have my own business and make a modest income. When I retire, my income stops. I don't come under social security."

That statement made before the President signed the amended Social Security Act, would have been wholly true. However, under the new law and beginning in January 1951, you may have social security protection.

The self-employed—people who work for themselves, approximately 4500 in this area—may begin building toward old-age and survivors insurance on the first of the year. They, like the salaried worker, may get monthly insurance payments when they retire; their families may get survivors' insurance if the self-employed

The self-employed person will be covered by social security if his net earnings are at least $400 in a year. He will be given a quarter of coverage for each $100 of his yearly earnings but not more than four quarters can be credited to any one year.

The self-employed person (who is in effect both employee and employer) will pay a social security tax of 2 1/2% of his net earnings where the amount is $400 or more in a year, beginning with his net earnings for 1951. He will not pay on earnings of over $3,600 a year. His first report for social security purposes of his earnings from self-employment will be made as part of his income tax return filed on Jan. 1 or Mar. 15, 1952.

This report of his net earnings over $400 and up to $3,600 will include any profit from his business operations (as sole owner or partner) but will not include income from such nonbusiness sources as rentals from real estate, unless he is a real estate dealer, or dividends or interest from stocks or bonds, unless he is in the business of securities exchange. Capital gains and losses, and income from an estate or trust will not be considered as earnings for social security purposes.

The kinds of trades and business enterprises in which self-employment will count toward old-age and survivors insurance benefits are varied. As sole owner or partner, you may operate a store, a beauty parlor or a filling station. You may have a barber shop, a tavern, or operate your own taxi. You may be self-employed in your own manufacturing plant, or you may have a shoe-shine stand. The size of your business is not a consideration. Again, you may be a free-lance writer, sign painter or independent contractor.

To determine more quickly whether your self-employment work will come under social security in January, scan the following list of excluded professions and business operations. Your earnings will not be covered by the law if they come from self-employment as a physician, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, naturopath, Christian Science practitioner, veterinarian, funeral director, lawyer, as a certified, licensed, registered or full-time practicing accountant, or as a professional engineer or architect. Farm operators also, are not covered by social security.

In my next article I shall discuss the household employee, the second largest group to become eligible for old-age and survivors insurance benefits under the new social security law.

GREAT BOOKS DISCUSSION

The first meeting of the great books discussion group will be held at 7.30 p. m., Tuesday, Jan. 16, in the Memorial Hall library. Any person interested in good books and good discussion will be welcome to be present on this first evening of the proposed series. Since there will be so much to be said, the group will begin at once to talk over the two readings planned for that first meeting. They are the "Declaration of Independence" and two sections of the Old Testament: Kings 21, and II Samuel, 11, 12. It is the aim of the great books plan to serve several purposes: first, that those who enter the group shall have a good time, learn to understand themselves and the world they live in; also, that they shall learn to think for themselves, build their own philosophies, enrich their everyday lives by contact with great ideas, and know that they are becoming acquainted with the finest thoughts of the human minds of many generations.

For information, call the library, 314.

NEW BOOKS

Here are a few of the new books at the Memorial Hall library:

Up In Our Country Putnam
Wholesome and down to earth, this has all the fun and some of the problems of living in a country place.

How To Stop Killing Yourself

Steincrohn
The author insists that each man kills himself in his own way, not by outright suicide, although each year 20,000 in the United States do, and another 100,000 try to do so; he believes that we are destruction bent by avoiding the necessary helps we could give ourselves, and by refusing the benefits at hand. Fascinating and helpful!

Kon-Tiki

Heyerdahl
Six brave and inquisitive men made a 40 foot balsa raft, named Kon-Tiki, and risked their lives on it to prove that the ancient Peruvians could have made the 4300 mile voyage to the Polynesian islands on similar craft. This is thrilling reading!

Belles On Their Toes Gilbreth
Remember the Gilbreths, the "Cheaper-By-The-Dozen" human experiment in boys and girls? Here they are, growing up, as they carried on after the death of Father Gilbreth. The Gilbreth parents were originators of motion study, and among the pioneers of scientific management; they carried on their methods into the home, and proved things!

Our Rejected Children Deutsch
A shocking expose of American children in trouble; why they get there, how they are treated in correctional institutions, what the results are. The author of "Mentally Ill In America" has studied juvenile delinquency problems seriously; the result is a book for every adult.

Jefferson And Madison Koch
"A remarkable and revealing account of the great friendship of two philosophical statesmen who decisively influenced the shape of American ideas and principles." During the 50 years of their friendship they worked on the problems of democratic but strong government, unafraid of political criticism, protecting civil liberties and dedicated to learning. A fresh, exciting approach to the lives of two of America's finest thinkers.

is free and open to anyone desirous of hearing this glorious oratorio.

The music committee is happy to present to local people an Andover resident, Eunice Alberts, as alto soloist. Hundreds of people are looking forward to hearing the gorgeous voice which this young lady possesses.

She is in great demand this season and the local choir is most fortunate in being able to obtain her for Sunday night. One of the highlights of her musical career was the occasion last summer when she appeared with Serge Koussevitsky and the Boston Symphony orchestra at Tanglewood in Bach's B Minor mass.

Sunday night's supporting soloists are of excellent quality and reputation. Doris Karamourtopoulis of Lawrence, soprano, a young lady of great promise and with a truly lovely voice, and Donald Sullivan, tenor, a singer of wide experience who has appeared in Andover before.

The chorus has been putting much time in this great work and an excellent performance is anticipated. Raymond Wilkinson will be at the organ, Ellen Stahle is the pianist, and the production will be directed by J. Everett Collins.

YOUR NEW SOCIAL SECURITY

By H. L. LEIGHTON
Manager Lawrence Office

Perhaps in the past you have said, or have heard someone say: "John H. was a corporation official with an upper-brackets salary. Now he's retired and getting social security benefit payments monthly. I have my own business and make a modest income. When I retire, my income stops. I don't come under social security."

That statement made before the President signed the amended Social Security Act, would have been wholly true. However, under the new law and beginning in January 1951, you may have social security protection.

The self-employed—people who work for themselves, approximately 4500 in this area—may begin building toward old-age and survivors insurance on the first of the year. They, like the salaried worker, may get monthly insurance payments when they retire; their families may get survivors' insurance if the self-employed worker should die.

The self-employed person will be covered by social security if his net earnings are at least $400 in a year. He will be given a quarter of coverage for each $100 of his yearly earnings but not more than four quarters can be credited to any one year.

The self-employed person (who is in effect both employee and employer) will pay a social security tax of 2 1/2% of his net earnings where the amount is $400 or more in a year, beginning with his net earnings for 1951. He will not pay on earnings of over $3,600 a year. His first report for social security purposes of his earnings from self-employment will be made as part of his income tax return filed on Jan. 1 or Mar. 15, 1952.

This report of his net earnings over $400 and up to $3,600 will include any profit from his business operations (as sole owner or partner) but will not include income from such nonbusiness sources as rentals from real estate, unless he is a real estate dealer, or dividends or interest from stocks or bonds, unless he is in the business of securities exchange. Capital gains and losses, and income from an estate or trust will not be considered as earnings for social security purposes.

The kinds of trades and business enterprises in which self-employment will count toward old-age and survivors insurance benefits are varied. As sole owner or partner, you may operate a store, a beauty parlor or a filling station. You may have a barber shop, a tavern, or operate your own taxi. You may be self-employed in your own manufacturing plant, or you may have a shoe-shine stand. The size of your business is not a consideration. Again, you may be a free-lance writer, sign painter or independent contractor.

To determine more quickly whether your self-employment work will come under social security in January, scan the following list of excluded professions and business operations. Your earnings will not be covered by the law if they come from self-employment as a physician, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, naturopath, Christian Science practitioner, veterinarian, funeral director, lawyer, as a certified, licensed, registered or full-time practicing accountant, or as a professional engineer or architect. Farm operators also, are not covered by social security.

In my next article I shall discuss the household employee, the second largest group to become eligible for old-age and survivors insurance benefits under the new social security law.

PUNCHARD HIGH

By JANET THOMPSON

CIVICS CLASS VISITOR

Sidney P. White of the Andover board of public works spoke to the sophomore civics classes Monday in the fourth of a series of lectures by local officials. Mr. White described the various services performed by the public works department and explained how the water system, sewage system, etc., operate.

Good Government

Student council members spoke to the various homerooms Tuesday concerning the choosing of a PUNCHARD Senior to represent the school next spring when the students of Massachusetts run the state government for a day. PUNCHARD students will elect their representative on Good Government day, Wed., Jan. 17, 1951.

Junior Class Meeting

A junior class meeting was held Tuesday in which Mervin E. Stevens, director of the junior-sophomore play, "A Date With Judy," explained the method of dividing the profits of the production. He listed the numerous taxes and expenses which must be subtracted from the proceeds and emphasized the fact that a vigorous campaign must be staged if the class treasury is to be increased.

Rehearsals are now in progress for the play, a three-act comedy by Aileen Leslie. Many of the familiar characters in the radio program, "A Date With Judy," are also present in this play. It will be given in the Memorial auditorium, Friday evening, Jan. 19, 1951.

Senior Poet

PUNCHARD can well be proud of Janet Hartford, a newcomer to the senior class, who has won national recognition as a poet. Before coming to PUNCHARD this fall, Janet attended the Norton High school in Berberon, O., where her poem, "The Phantom Horse," was selected as the best in Summit county. This poem was published in the 1950 edition of "The Anthology of Ohio Verse." Janet's poems have also appeared in the 1948, 1949 and 1950 editions of "Young America Sings," a publication of the National High School association. Congratulations, Janet!

NOTES

In next Monday's assembly Gilbert Merrill of the Boston Museum of Science will present a "Wild Animal" program and will bring several live animals.

School doors at Junior High and PUNCHARD will close at noon-time, Friday, Dec. 22 for the Christmas vacation. School will reopen Tuesday, Jan. 2.

A number of senior boys took their R.O.T.C. examinations Saturday, Dec. 9.

Most boys learn many things at their mother's knee, but usually get some good lessons across their father's knees.

Merchants Organization Needed

With the approach of the Christmas holidays one does not have to travel far in any direction to note how many communities don a decorative garb for this festive season.

By contrast, Andover's Yule decorations in the business section are rather meager, a condition at this time of year which has caused more than one local merchant to ask why some wider recognition of the holiday is not made here.

Further discussion of the subject always leads up to the fact that there is no organization in town that functions strictly as a businessman's group through which he and his fellow merchants can take united action on Christmas decorations or other matters in which they are primarily concerned.

Several of the town's merchants have expressed a desire for such an organization to advocate and encourage policies that affect the businessman and his workers, and which could speak for them on questions like store hours, holiday closing and kindred subjects.

There is a willingness on the part of a good number of our storekeepers to join such a group. What is needed now is leadership to get it started. From opinions expressed about town recently it appears that it would soon have a large representative membership which could work to the advantage of the merchant and of the town.

Curb Auto Horn Honkers

More power to the Boston man who has come forward with a plan to curb inane auto horn honkers.

Grover C. Hoyt must have had some experiences with the boy friend of a girl in the neighborhood who runs his car up to her door and sounds a few sharp toots for his "Toots" to come running, or with the driver in the car behind at the traffic lights who lets go with a couple of startling blasts on his horn the instant the light changes to green.

Anyway, he wants to put the brakes on such as these through a law calling for a fine of $5 on motorists who sound their horns while their cars are not in motion. For subsequent offenses he proposes a fine of not less than $100 or 30 days in jail, or both.

That last is a pretty stiff penalty, but it indicates just how indiscriminate honking affects Mr. Hoyt—and many others.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago—December 1900

Skating began Monday on Hussey's and Rabbit's pond.

Two alarms of fire brought firemen on the jump to barns of Phillips academy on Morton street. Old barn burning furiously. Firemen devote efforts to saving new barn, just completed at expense of $2500, and it was two hours after blaze started that it could be called saved.

Zero Monday morning was the coldest weather so far this season.

The selectmen have just finished perambulating the town's boundaries in company with selectmen of neighboring towns and have found with few exceptions, all standing in good condition, corresponding with those found in 1794, as follows: North Reading, 14 stone bounds; North Andover 11, Wilmington 17, Tewksbury 23, Lawrence 11.

While driving his team in Boston, Isadore Johnson, a resident of Ballardvale, fell off the rear seat and was instantly killed when the rear wheels passed over his head.

Some achievement for a man 81 was Harry Brownell's walk from his home in the Phillips district, Andover, to Wakefield. Returning, he took a train to Ballardvale and walked the rest of the distance.

Frank E. Bailey elected master of Andover Grange.

W. S. Rhodes, G. A. Christie and David Coutts make up executive committee in charge of Cricket club minstrel show. Thomas E. Rhodes has been appointed musical director.

Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders of Chestnut st., observe 60th wedding anniversary. Both past 80 years, were remembered with gifts from friends.

"The laxity of the enforcement of prohibition has much to do with crime today," James C. Ramsey, probation officer of Middlesex county avers in discussing crime and its prevention at Christ church choir smoker.

25 Years Ago—December 1925

Man picked up after suspicious actions at Haggett's pond pumping station found to have no connection with the shooting of Officer Black, but was wanted in Fall River where he had a long record.

All drunken drivers should receive stiff jail sentences. Fine and a few days in jail not enough, says statement from AL A.

George B. Petrie elected chief of Clan Johnston, George Page taniat, David A. Forbes chaplain, Charles Valentine secretary, James Morton financial secretary, Robert Christie treasurer.

Andover K. of C. passes resolutions on death of Officer Black "our friend and protector."

Crisis Calls For Cool Heads, Calm Thinking, To Avoid Trap

This is the time to keep our heads. Good may yet result. The tragic events in Asia and the fright of our Allies may arouse the free world at last to a long-overdue unity and to full measures to save civilization from the doom planned by Moscow.

A nation that survived Valley Forge and Bataan—with relatively far less available resources for recovery—is not the type to be appalled by besetting dangers. Our immediate problem is to gain time to mobilize our latent, massive power and that of our friends.

Negotiations to gain time are feasible. But statesmen who really fathom Kremlin motives warn that abject appeasement, in a panic-inspired attempt to snatch at a precarious peace, would be a disastrous delusion. They maintain that nothing will satisfy Russian communism but the piecemeal elimination of our Allies and the ultimate destruction of the United States and religious faith.

Red Goal:

World Domination

We are dealing with Red leaders whose minds are saturated with blind hatred of every obstacle in the path toward intended world domination.

We grew accustomed to Vishinsky's and Malik's monotonous insults, falsehoods and threats. Their accusations seemed so preposterous to informed free men that we did not take them seriously enough. The studied malevolence of Wu Hsiu-chuan at the United Nations revealed even more brazen lies than those of his Moscow mentors.

I observed him and his delegation closely during the show-down sessions at Lake Success. Wu's tirades sounded more strident because of his sing-song dialect and his high-pitched, chopping voice. Between outbursts he and his group were as rigid as Manchu bronze images.

Although the Indian delegate, Sir Benegal N. Rau, who had expressed cordiality, sat shoulder to shoulder with Wu at the council tables, not once—not even during the long intermissions as English and French translations of speeches were read—did the Chinese general turn his head or make the slightest human gesture of recognition of the Indian's close presence.

All the isolation, which has kept Red China from even sensing the feelings of the free world, was epitomized in the implacable aloofness of the People's Republic delegates at Lake Success.

Sing the Same Songs

An underlying disturbing factor

1, Shawsheen 0, (Saturday at Shawsheen).

10 Years Ago—December 1940

Tribute paid Gene Lovely with banquet at auditorium in recognition of his 30th year of coaching at Punchard. Football team and all-girls' band also guests. Sam Resnik showed movies of Holy Cross-B. C. game; and Jim Utley showed films of Punchard games.

Andover Community orchestra gives first public concert before enthusiastic audience at auditorium.

Large gathering of employees, producers and friends help Charles D. Glennie celebrate 50th anniversary of company with dinner and entertainment.

David Cunningham observes 91st birthday in home on Shawsheen road where he was born.

in both the security council and the general assembly is that all Russian satellites who spoke—whether captive Ukrainian or once-free Pole—each repeated again and again the Russian clichés of "ruling classes," "imperialist aggressors," "warmongers" etc.

These embittered delegates represent hundreds of millions of pliable peoples into whose ears are dinned the never-changing hymns of hate. Even the capacity for logic and truth can be deadened if the mind is subjected to endless perversions.

When Americans appreciate the effects of such persistent propaganda in Iron Curtain circles, we may better realize the futility of trying to appease Russian-inspired communism which considers every decent gesture of the free world a capitalist trick or sign of weakness or vice.

For example, the question of human rights is the subject of UN discussions. This is the Red reaction to that laudable ideal, as revealed in the official radio broadcast from Bucharest, Rumania:

"The hangmen of the people (Austin, Dulles) dare to speak to us about liberties and fundamental rights of man. The assassins stained with the blood of Korean children, the jailors of the best sons of America, the patrons of the Ku Klux Klan, the inventors of electric machines of torture dare teach us what true democracy means..."

Try to Split Allies

The Red Czech government grows more hysterical in whipping up anger. Radio Prague, attempting to drive a wedge between Europe and America, says the British and French governments "out of hatred of the Soviet Union follow the orders given by Wall Street."

Prime Minister Zaptotcky, commenting on recent treason trials, blames America for alleged crimes. "Under the patronage of American espionage centers in neighboring western Germany," he charges, "subversive elements are trained and sent into our territory to organize assaults on individuals and acts of sabotage against our production."

Pravda, official Politburo voice of Slovakia, prints a poem which openly predicts that if President Truman uses the bomb a Czech will assassinate him. The verses end with the threat: "You, Mister Truman, better quit thinking about dropping the bomb or you will pay with your life."

Vituperation of America is increasing in tempo. Isolated peoples in the Soviet sphere hear only these smears all the time. This barrage is now being raised to include free Europe.

Would Seize

"Masses of People"

One of the targets set at the recent World Congress for "Peace" in Warsaw was: "To snatch from the enemy (the free world) the masses of the people without which no modern army can exist." In plain words, to smother Europe with such violent anti-American propaganda that Europeans will refuse to fight by the side of American soldiers against Communist armies.

Among friendly nations are segments who are envious of the prosperity of Capitalist America, who are worried by our unbending anti-Russian spirit, who fear that we will allow the running sore in Asia to drain away strength required to safe-guard Europe from a successful Soviet attack.

This new Communist drive to undermine the will of Europeans to fight alongside Americans therefore has some foundation on which to build—a fact which London, Paris and other capitals must consider when committing themselves to American policy.

If we accuse them of faint-heartedness and cowardice, we play the Communist game, which is to divide and conquer the free world.

We should recognize the extent of the hatred massed against us by Russian-inspired communism. Thus we shall be wiser in our relations with friendly states. Knowledge will keep us from entering a fool's paradise of appeasement that leaves us weaker in the end. It will stiffen our resolution to mobilize our full material and spiritual might to save America and the free world.

relatively large yields of potatoes and corn, Massachusetts in 1950 has had a good agricultural year... About 95,000 car loads of food, exclusive of fish and dry groceries, are distributed in a year by the wholesale dealers located in and near Boston, an annual business valued at close to $600,000,000.... It is estimated that the proposed new wholesale food market at South Bay, Boston, would cost approximately $14 million but would pay for itself in a little over three years and thereafter would represent a saving to food distributors of about $4 million a year because of its greater efficiency and accessibility....Department store sales in Massachusetts during October returned to 2.5% above those a year ago, approximately the ratio that existed before the Korean outbreak....The Town of Dalton has prepared a zoning by-law for consideration by the voters.

Just a prevue of what the well-dressed (?) girl will be wearing, plus a little cheesecake, was displayed in this "Fashion Show" staged at the senior class stunt night in the Memorial gym by this bevy of Punchard's beauties. A - Bomb Booklet For Distribution

Every family in town is expected to receive a copy of the booklet "Protection from the Atom Bomb" which will be distributed through the office of Albert Cole Jr., civil defense director.

Prepared by John W. M. Bunker of MIT and a panel of experts these illustrated copies outline the proper things to do in the event of an atom bomb attack.

As they come off the press they will be distributed to the 351 local civil defense directors of the state who, in turn, will make provision for local distribution.

THREE BAGS OF GOLD

There are many legends about St. Nicholas of as we call him, Santa Claus. One of the happier ones is that he is the protector of all humble and small folk and the special guardian of unmarried girls. It is said, according to the Jewelry Industry Council, that at one time he learned of three young women who had no suitors because their father was too poor to provide them with a dowry. So one night he filled three bags with gold and threw them into the windows of the rooms occupied by the young women and they soon were happily married. Unexpected gifts thereafter were said to come from St. Nicholas.

Some people run into debt—but have to crawl out.

N.S.D.A.R. Chapter December Meeting

The December meeting of the Priscilla Abbot chapter, N. S. D. A. R., was held Tuesday afternoon in the Historical house with Mrs. Will G. Brown and Mrs. F. E. Whiting as hostesses.

After the devotions, pledge to the flag, and American's creed, Mrs. Guy B. Howe, the regent, read excerpts from a speech by the senior senator of North Carolina praising the organization for its work in Americanism.

A paper on the American Indian prepared by Mrs. Henry Stevenson was read by Mrs. Horace Bodwell and was especially interesting as the early settlement of Andover was brought in.

Mrs. Myron Clark told of a letter received from Mrs. Inez Henry thanking the chapter for the clothing received by the Berry school in Georgia and the Christmas gifts for the individual members.

Miss Caroline Underhill told of some interesting jelly receipts which she had recently tried out, the results of which were on sale. Mrs. Frank Benton, state chairman of conservation and president of the Andover Garden club, gave a talk on conservation of soils and game, fire prevention and forest preservation.

Tea was served following the meeting and Christmas carols played on the phonograph.

December Traffic Fatalities Highest

Seventy-two human beings were slaughtered on the highways last December.

At the same time 4515 men, women and children were seriously injured, five per cent of them crippled or disfigured for life.

This is the grim record of highway fatalities and injuries during the month of December 1949, according to Chief George F. Dane of the police department which is co-operating with Rudolph F. King's registry of motor vehicles department in a special emphasis campaign to reduce traffic accidents this December.

"The tragic horror of sudden death and suffering already experienced this December is cause for serious alarm in every community of the commonwealth," said Chief Dane and the registrar, outlining the extreme need for immediate public cooperation with traffic control and enforcement officers of the state.

"December is the most dangerous traffic month of the year! This year, with 103,000 more registered automobiles, 153,000 more licensed operators driving more miles than ever before in the history of Massachusetts, every driver and pedestrian MUST take instant action to prevent a repetition of last year's shameful experience.

"In the first ten days of this month, 25 highway fatalities have already been reported. Unreasonable speed and driving after drinking have been the direct cause of the majority of these tragic deaths. This is a terrible price to pay for carelessness, recklessness, and discourtesy on the commonwealth's highways," stated the Registrar.

"Every officer in my department will work with inspectors from the registry in an all-out effort to prevent deaths and injuries during the coming holiday period and Registrar King and I ask the fullest cooperation of every citizen of this and other surrounding communities to make the 1950 Christmas holiday season accident-free," concluded Chief Dane.

Information For Veterans

Q—I was the common-law wife of a World War I veteran who died recently. If I meet income requirements, would I be eligible for a VA pension?

A—You may be eligible, provided a valid common-law marriage was established. File a claim with the VA, and at that time your entitlement will be determined.

Q—I expect to enter a VA hospital shortly for treatment of a 40-percent service-connected disability, and I understand I'll have to remain there for two or three months. Is there any way my family can get financial help from VA while I am in the hospital?

A—VA has no funds specifically available for such purposes. However, after you have been in the hospital twenty-one days or more for treatment of the service-connected condition, VA will pay you a 100-percent disability rating, which you will continue to receive thereafter for as long as you remain hospitalized for such treatment.

Q—I am planning to buy a home with a GI loan, and am ready to make a down payment. What happens to my down payment in case a VA loan guaranty cannot be accomplished?

A—Unless you make certain a clause is inserted in the purchase contract stating that payments are to be returned to you if the loan cannot be obtained, you may lose your down payment.

Q—Does the new law enabling Spanish-American War veterans to get out-patient medical care, with out regard to service-connection also apply to dental care?

A—Yes. Spanish-American War veterans may be eligible for dental care in VA clinics or home-town dentists, with VA approval.

Resigns As Head Of Civil Defense

Albert Cole Jr., has tendered the board of selectmen his resignation as director of civil defense effective Mar. 31, 1951, as he wishes to return to his permanent duties as deputy chief of the fire department.

When his appointment to the newly-created office was made last September, it was with the understanding that it would be only on a temporary basis. Since then, however, state authorities have announced that the director of civil defense would be a permanent position in all city and town governments and he is stepping aside for the appointment of a permanent head of the Andover organization.

Since he has been in office he has got the new set-up started with several branches in the process of being organized.

The resignation was received at the meeting of the selectmen Monday night.
